

Name _____ Date _____

Put Yourself In Someone Else's Shoes

We have been working on perspective taking. "Put yourself in someone else's shoes" is an idiom to explain perspective taking. This means we have to think about how other people think and feel. It is a really important part of being a social thinker! Use your perspective taking skills to fill out this page.

I am putting myself in _____'s shoes.

My hair color is _____ and my eyes are _____.

I like to eat _____.

My favorite color is _____.

My favorite animal is _____.

I like to wear _____.

My favorite restaurant is _____.

I work at _____.

My favorite T.V. show is _____.

My favorite movie is _____.

When I have free time, I like to _____.

I would love to go on vacation to _____.